Principal Consulting Actuary
Cheiron Inc.
Mount Laurel, New Jersey

Christian Benjaminson has nearly 30 years of experience as an actuarial consultant, primarily with Taft-Hartley pension plans. His experience includes helping seven plans apply and receive more than $1 billion in Special Financial Assistance under the American Rescue Plan Act. He has also helped set up a multiemployer adjustable pension plan which distributes risks between employers and employees. In January 2025, he was appointed to the Labor Department's ERISA Advisory Council for three years. He chaired the American Academy of Actuary's Multiemployer Plans Committee (2020-2022) and participated in educational programs about the multiemployer pension crisis for lawmakers. He frequently speaks at the Annual Conference of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and the Enrolled Actuaries meeting. He joined Cheiron in 2003 and opened the firm's Philadelphia-area office in June 2006. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (FSA)—the highest professional accreditation—an Enrolled Actuary (EA) under ERISA, and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries (MAAA®).
