

James E. Hogarth, ICDD

Executive Director
Helmets to Hardhats Canada
Ottawa, Ontario

Born in Toronto and raised in Bowmanville, Ontario, James E. Hogarth joined UA Local 46 as a Steamfitter apprentice in 1980. Over the last 30 years, he has taken on several positions representing workers in the construction industry. As the Business Manager of UA Local 46 from 2003 to 2012, Jim's focus was primarily the promotion of the membership and the negotiating of over ten collective agreements. Over the course of the next ten years, he took on the role of Business Manager for the Ontario Pipe Trades Council representing and advocating on behalf of the ten UA Locals and their 25,000 members.

Jim has served on several boards and committees over the years. Most recently, he served as President of the Ontario Building and Construction Trades Council, Vice President of the Ontario Construction Secretariat, and was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of the Workplace Safety Insurance Board (WSIB). Jim looks forward to working with the H2H Team in Building Pathways to the Trades for transitioning Veterans, Reservists and Cadets.
