

Megan Kaneen

Partner

Lawson Lundell LLP

Vancouver, British Columbia

Megan, a partner at Lawson Lundell LLP, advises boards of trustees and plan sponsors on a variety of legal matters involving pension plans, ELHTs and other benefit plans. Her clients include both single employer plans and trustee multi-employer plans across a wide range of industries. Megan interprets and amends plan texts and trust documentation, drafts supporting plan documentation and policies, and advises on the application of provincial and federal pension legislation and regulator policy. She advises on issues that arise in day-to-day plan administration, assists her clients with specialized projects such as surplus ownership analysis and contract review, and assists the resolution of benefit disputes outside of court. Megan has significant experience reviewing and advising on pension and benefit plan investment agreements.
