

Brian Keefe, MD

Medical Director, National Crisis Services,
Carelon Behavioral Care and Employer Services
Carelon
Raleigh, North Carolina

Dr. Keefe is an experienced psychiatrist, clinical leader and physician executive with a 15-year track record of leadership roles in academic medicine, nonprofit health systems and an equity-backed multi-state behavioral health organization. As a former residency training director, hospital medical director in three different states, and C-suite leader, he maintains a first-hand knowledge about evidence-based treatment at all levels of care, as well as an understanding of the regulatory landscape and reimbursement systems in behavioral health, at both operational and strategic levels. With subspecialty training in both psychosomatic medicine and forensic psychiatry, Dr. Keefe has extensive experience providing state-of-the-art clinical care in the inpatient and outpatient arenas, teaching/supervising trainees, designing/operating innovative clinical programming, and optimizing risk management in multiple organizations.
