

Diana L. Marburger, GBA

Welfare Director

Greater St. Louis Construction Laborers' Welfare Fund
St. Louis, Missouri

Diana Marburger is the welfare fund director for the Greater St. Louis Construction Laborers' Welfare Fund, which administers benefits for the Greater St. Louis area laborers. The fund is made up of more than 4,000 members and covers over 11,000 total lives. She has been responsible for managing the Welfare staff, vendors, and benefits for the fund for more than 13 years in her current position. She was involved in the creation of and oversees LEAN STL, which is a peer support program sponsored by the fund. It employs two peer support specialists who assist in offering recovery and mental health resources to the laborers and their families. Ms. Marburger has over 22 years of experience in the multiemployer Taft-Hartley industry. She has an associate of science degree in business and is pursuing a Certified Employee Benefits Specialist® (CEBS®) designation through the International Foundation, and she has earned the Group Benefits Associate (GBA®) designation.