

Riley St. Jacques, BSc, FCIA, FSA

Partner and Senior Consultant
PBI Actuarial Consultants Ltd.
Vancouver, British Columbia

Riley St. Jacques is a Partner and Market Leader in PBI's Vancouver office with over 25 years of experience in actuarial consulting. He provides actuarial, group benefits, pension and investment consulting services. Riley has deep expertise in advising multi-employer pension and health and welfare plan trustees on plan design, administration, governance, risk management, strategic direction and actuarial issues.

He has served as an advisory member of several pension advisory committees, including the Alberta Treasury Board and Finance, the BC Financial Services Authority and the Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario (FSRA), providing insights for regulatory considerations for target benefit and multi-employer issues. Riley is an Advisory Director for the Multi-Employer Benefit Council of Canada (MEBCO), advocating for multi-employer pension and group benefit programs. He has also served as a member of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Investment Practice Committee, Pension Investments Practice Subcommittee and the Pension Plan Standards of Practice Committee. As a frequent speaker at industry events and conferences, Riley shares insights on pension, investment and benefits issues, establishing his thought leadership in the field. He holds a bachelor of science degree in mathematics and finance from the University of Alberta and is a Fellow of both the Society of Actuaries (FSA) and the Canadian Institute of Actuaries (FCIA).
