

Lauren Tarasuk

Associate
Koskie Minsky LLP
Toronto, Ontario

Lauren is an associate in the Pensions & Benefits group at Koskie Minsky LLP. Lauren joined Koskie Minsky as a student in 2015 before completing her articles at the firm and joining as an associate.

Lauren is dedicated to providing advice and representation to employees, trade unions, plan administrators, trustees and their advisors on a range of pension, benefits, employment, compliance and privacy issues. Lauren routinely assists with broad privacy and compliance matters including drafting privacy and security policies, responding to privacy breaches, as well as advising on compliance with relevant privacy legislation. Lauren has on the ground experience acting as privacy head of a government organization and advising on governance issues.

She authored publications featured in the Plans & Trust magazine published by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans on privacy and security matters. Lauren has been named in consecutive editions of the Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in Canada directory. Lauren is a graduate of the Bora Laskin Faculty of Law at Lakehead University and was called to the bar in 2017.
