

Carey R. Wooton, CEBS

Associate Vice President, Education
International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans
Brookfield, Wisconsin

Carey R. Wooton, CEBS, is the associate vice president of education at the International Foundation, where she leads the development of employee benefits education, ensuring that trustees, administrators, and benefits professionals can provide the health and financial security to their plan beneficiaries worldwide. Prior to her current role at the International Foundation, Ms. Wooton spent more than 20 years in leadership positions for a national multiemployer pension fund. Ms. Wooton is a Past President of the International Society of Certified Employee Benefit Specialists (ISCEBS) Governing Council and has also served on several committees. Ms. Wooton holds a B.A. degree in Spanish and secondary education from Indiana State University and an M.A. degree in media ecology from New York University.